TOO HEAVY FOR THE FLOOR, BAISLEY'S CONTESTED SEAT

Mary Madden Broke Through in the Prisoners' Pen.

The Other Women Thought the Building Was Falling.

The Butler Street Police Court, Brooklyn, was in an uproar this morning. Had Ryde, was elected to succeed Baisley, it not been for the vigilance of the court but the latter says his terms does not to be timbers. This was followed by as President pro tem. shricks and cries.

The crowd started for the door, think-

President Pro Tem.

Now that John Y. McKane has been re-elected President pro tem, of the Kings County Board of Supervisors, the interest of politicians in Brooklyn is NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 2.—The police centred on the case of John Ryder of this place were this morning quite agains: Richard L. Baisley, the Flatlands Supervisor.

Mr. Ryder has begun action against Baisley in the Supreme Court, in which strangled to death at her home, 79 Comhe proposes to prove that the defendant mere is holding his seat as Supervisor illegally.

In the latter says his serious accident might have occurred.

Mary Madden, thirty-five years old, who gives her address as Adams street. Brooking, was brought to the court and placed in the woman's pen. She is a portly woman. She is charged with being drunk on Third avenue last night.

Court Officer Burke had scarcely closed the door of the pen when Justice Tighe, the court attaches and spectators were startled by the cracking of what seemed to be timbers. This was followed by a President proteon.

They had in their custody 7dward Corbally in the latter says his terms does not expire until Jan. 1 1855.

Last evening Justice Culien, in the Surprise Court. Brooklyn, granted to Mr. Ryder's counsel an order against Baisley it who was dentified by Edward Miller as the man he say furtively a fight. Court officer Burke had scarcely closed the door of the pen when Justice Tighe, the court attaches and spectators were startled by the cracking of what seemed to be timbers. This was followed by

IS CORBALLY A MURDERER? NEW JERSEY.

New Police Do Not Believe that MISS BARROWGLIFF SPEAKS.

Leave Her Home Early Dec. 26.

sure that they are on the rigt track of the murderer of Elizabeth Petty, the old maid recluse and miser, who was found police that he had at 3.30 o'clock Tuesday morning. Dec. 23, seen a very broadshouldered man leave through the gate referred to. This man, as said, had first cautiously looked about before stepping out upon the sidewalk. He were a pearacket of dark material, a broad-brimmed derily hat. His face was smooth.

On the strength of this description, the police last night arrested Corbaily, who has since been fully identified by Miller. Corbaily admitted, after having been identified, that he had come out of the house in the neighborhood of Miss Petty's, but said that it was the house of a friend whom he had been visiting. At the time of Corbaily's arrest, one John Dunn was with him. He was also taken into custody.

But the Boy Miller Says He Saw Him | She Has Not Yet Revealed the Name of Her Assailant.

NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 2.-The police Supt. Smith Still Theorizing and Growing Angry.

Miss May Barrowellff had not regained merce street, the morning of Dec. 27 her senses sufficiently this merning to describe the assailant who made a mur They had in their custody 7dward Cor- derous attack on her last Friday night

Committee on Excellent Control

The state of the first of

The matter was set down for argumnet next week.

TRIED TO CUT HER RIVAL.

But Succeeded Only in Cutting Herself.

Jealousy led to a row in the apartments of Antonio Mascarillo, 485 Adelphi street to the statistics that I know to five and the garden to the good in the statistics that I know of the statisti colors; also ladies' 4-button Suedes, sold regularly at 90c. to $1.25, all at

> 39c. WORLD'S FAIR PRIZE WINNERS' EXPOSITION

They who have seen it pro- whip cord Jackets. "Gertie Dexter."
The reply was correct, and was taken to indicate that Miss Barrowellar is gradually regaining her senses. Miss Dexter calls at the hospital twice a day, but has not yet been allowed to see her friend.

Dr. Variot and Observable Figures, Ivory Carvings, tight fitting; were Variek said this morning that even the French Exhibit of Costumes $32.00 and $28.50, now

23d Street

Ladies' Jackets Immense Sacrifice

ity fur trimming. were $58.00 and $52.00.now/

Best quality English

Black, blue, tan and brown Cloth Jackets. fur trimmed; were $24.00 and $20.00, now Black and blue Chev.

iots and plain beavers: also mixed cloth Jack M'KANE SPARRING FOR WIND. ets; were $18.50 a ets: were $18.50 and Black, blue and) mixed cloth Jackets: were $16.50 and $12.50,

These Garments are last season's styles, of excellent materials and thoroughly 18th St., 19th St. and 6th Ave. well made. Sizes range from 32 to 44 inches bust

Oyer and Terminer, Brooklyn, this morning and asked to plead to forty-five in-

Lawyers Argue for Demurrers in Madison Square Bank Cases.

Sutherland and Newton are charged with conspiracy and contempt of court.

Me Kane is eleven indictments is charged with conspiracy, oppression, contempt, assault in the second degree and violating registry laws.

Gennison is charged four times with perjury. The others are charged with misconduct as registry affects and conspiracy.

Justice Bartlett allowed the prisoners until next Monday at 19 o'clock in which to answer to the indictments.

Lawyers Redward Lauterbach, William H. Putney, Wheeler H. Peckham and solvent, and likewise a very serious charge to make. It was impossible to have known on that date whether the Board of Directors of the Madison Square Bank, who have been indicted for various crimes and misdementors in the selection with the wrecking of that institution, appeared before Justice Bartlett allowed the prisoners of the defendants, wanted a longer time, but Assistant District-Attorney Edward Institution, appeared before Justice Bartlett allowed the prisoners of the defendants, wanted a longer time, but Assistant District Attorney Edward Institution, appeared before Justice Bartlett allowed the prisoners of the defendants, wanted a longer time, but Assistant District Attorney Edward Institution, appeared to argue in favor of the demurrers which the defendants have interposed to the indictinents upon Mr. Lauterbach alleged, that the Madison Square Bank was insolvent. It was not known by any one on Aug. In Massing the content of the Madison Square Bank, william H. Putney, Wheeler H. Peckham and his fellow-members of the Board of Directors of the Madison Square Bank was insolvent. It was impossible to chark known on that date whether the board of the Board of Directors of the Madison Square Bank was insolvent. It was not known by any one on Aug. In Massing Provide the Madison Square Bank was insolvent. It was insolvent of the solvent end of the Science of the Madison Square Bank was insolvent of the woldent was a mistitution was the solvent and his fellow-members of the Board of Directors of the Ma

Le Boutillier Bros B.ALTMAN & CO Great Sale

Special Sale To-morrow of Linen

REAL LACES.

REAL POINT, POINT APed Kersey cloth Jack-ets, in tan, brown and black, with best qual-$12.50 PLIQUE, DUCHESSE AND REAL VALENCIENNES

And an assortment of Chantilly Laces and Flounces, and Black and Colored Silk and And will offer Beaded Drapery Nets. Also a variety of Alencon,

Black Bourdon, Black and White Laces, &c., 5.90

33<sup>c.,</sup> 47<sup>c.,</sup> 72<sup>c.,</sup> $1.12 West 23d St. and 1.39, former prices from 48c, to $3.00 yd.

(18th St. Station Elevated Road.)

DIAMONDS. Watches, Jewelry, $1 weekly at store; write and representative will call with samples; no exorbitant prices; guarantee goods, tooldshorough Watch Co., 200 Broadway.

fenne.
He took up first the case of John Ire-iand, who deposited a check of $116 in the bank on Aug. 7 last, which was made the basis of one of the indictments made the basis of one of the indictales signified Blaut.

No crime was committed by the teller who received the check, he said, as he knew nothing of the bank's insolvency, and it was impossible under the statute to make President Blaut Hable as an accessory to a crime which had no existence.

MANIELY TITZPATICE CO
DOT LICE AND AND CONTROL TO AND AND CONTROL TO AND CONTROL

Stern Bros.

Housekeeping Goods

> Exceptional Prices.

Additional Guipure de Gene, Point Gaze, Bargains For To-morrow

and the remainder of the week.

Sporting.

BARGAINS IN CAMERAS. 4x3 ROCHESTER List $18.00, for $11.85 4x5 FOLDING. for $14.90

5x8 VIEW COM-

for $12.88 DRY PLATES PER DOZ.; 4-5, 50c.; 5-5, $1.00.

CLOSING OUT

723, 725, 727 Sixth Ave., N. Y.

TRANSLATOR ALLEN ACCUSED. His Wife Alleges Cruelty in a Suit

(Het. 41st and 42d sts.)

for Divorce. The trial of the suit of Mrs. Genevive Allen against her husband, Frank Allen, for a separation and alimony on the ground of extreme and repeated righty was heard by Judge Dugro, of the Superior Court, to-day.

Allen is in the employ of Brentano's,